

I am an over-the-road truck driver. I rely very much on XM for weather and traffic reports. I also rely on XM for radio coverage in areas where I can't get reception on regular radio. It is a great help especially when driving at night. It also keeps me from removing my attention from the road to change stations.